

ALLSAINTS
WOODFORD WELLS

An exciting opportunity has arisen to work as Hub Partnerships Manager (HPM) in partnership with All Saints Woodford Wells at WTC's North East London Hub. The HPM will work alongside the Hub Director, building and strengthening relationships with local churches and networks, with particular emphasis on marketing and student recruitment for the Hub. The partnership between WTC and ASWW began in 2013, and the Hub is an established learning and worshipping community with current students studying both undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Kingdom Theology with WTC.

The successful applicant will possess excellent interpersonal skills and, ideally, already have relationships with church leaders in NE London. They will be a self-starter, well organised and methodical, an outstanding networker, with an ability to establish and build a really strong network of churches who see WTC as key to helping them fulfil their vision for their leaders and members of having a deeper understanding of theology. These relationships will be a core element of the Hub recruitment strategy contributing to a healthy intake of students each academic year.

WTC is a pioneering theological college with a vision to integrate the best of scholarship with the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit to transform, heal and release God's people into His purposes. WTC's mission is to deliver transformational theological education within prophetic, worshipping and learning communities throughout the UK, in partnership with local churches. The successful applicant will see this role as part of their call to ministry, and as such it is a genuine occupational requirement for the HPM to be a mature Christian.

The successful candidate will be contracted to All Saints Woodford Wells.

This is a part-time, permanent post attracting an annual salary of £4,162pa (FTE £26,010) for 6 hours per week. Flexibility is required for working hours. Occasional Saturday and Sunday availability may be required, as is attendance at marketing focused training provided by WTC.
